"It is a real pleasure working for a company that is highly professional and has a comfortable atmosphere. THE BEST OF BOTH WORLDS!"

- Ron Cole, Harbor City Agent since 2010.

"As a busy mother and nurse, HCREA allows me the flexibility to pursue all facets of my life while maintaining a presence in the Charleston real estate market. Chris makes himself readily available and his expertise and experience are invaluable. I always appreciate his knowledge and support."

- Elizabeth Lyday, Harbor City Agent since 2005.

"I am thankful that I found HCRE and have been an agent with them since 2005. Chris is an excellent Broker-in-Charge, generous with both his time and resources and happy to share his vast industry knowledge. Harbor City has been a great fit for me, and Chris is so easy to work with, available whenever I need help. Chris has invaluable in-depth knowledge of the Charleston real estate market, both commercial and residential, as well as real estate law. For a new agent like me, that was key. Competitive commission splits, combined with discounts for my personal transactions and minimal costs, make Harbor City the perfect place for investor agents like me. I couldn't be happier as an agent with HCRE."

- Laura Otterberg, Harbor City Agent since 2000.

"As a new agent, the quick response time to calls and emails that Chris has provided has been invaluable to me. I appreciate his knowledge and experience as a real estate attorney as well as the office facilities Harbor City maintains for meetings and transactions. I feel that the firm's unique environment would benefit both established and new agents."

- Kimberly Rayfield, Harbor City Agent since 2011.

"I became licensed in 2005 and immediately decided to join HCREA because of its 'boutique nature' and the freedom that it afforded me to conduct business as I saw fit. I also found Chris, the Broker-in-Charge and owner, extremely approachable AND knowledgeable about both commercial and residential real estate. His experience as a real estate attorney has proved invaluable in what he calls "issue-spotting." I can honestly say he has been an invaluable mentor to me, always more than willing to help the agents, whether negotiating strategies or joining a conference call to address a complicated matter. In essence, he is both a can-do leader and an inspirational facilitator for the agents in business with him."

- Jose Hernandez, Harbor City Agent since 2005.

"I pursued my real estate license after completing a real estate transaction where I was the client in a dual-agency relationship. I felt that I did not have the proper representation because the agent was in fact serving two masters, the buyer and the seller. The main draw at the time to HCRE was that they do not participate in dual agency transactions. Since that time, HCRE has met and exceeded every need I have had as an agent, from protecting my clients, to offering invaluable insight and wisdom with regard to our personal transactions. What I appreciate most in Chris, the Broker-In-Charge, is his level of integrity, professionalism, and gracious spirit."
